

THE MYSTERY IN THE OLD ATTIC

It's a Mystery!

It's wintertime! The snow is falling really hard, and the temperature is way below freezing. All you really want is a cup of hot cocoa, a yummy muffin, and a few good laughs.

If you're looking for something to do while you're stuck in the house, follow the maze below. After you find the right path, write down each of the letters as you come to them.
